NUMBER OF SEATS

The total number of seats available for admission to the Ph.D. Programme in Law at Chotanagpur Law College, Ranchi for the current academic session is 20. Out of these, 12 seats are earmarked for candidates who have qualified UGC-NET (including JRF) or UGC-NET (eligible for Assistant Professor / Ph.D. admission only), in accordance with UGC norms and the CNLC Ph.D. Regulations, 2026.

The remaining seats shall be filled through the CNLC Research Eligibility Test (CNLC-RET) and subsequent interview process, subject to the availability of recognized research supervisors and institutional research capacity.

Research proposals are especially encouraged in emerging, interdisciplinary, and socially relevant areas of law, particularly those involving cross-cutting themes and contemporary legal challenges. The proposed research must demonstrate the potential to make an original contribution to legal knowledge.

Admission shall be granted only where the research proposal is found academically sound, feasible, and aligned with institutional research priorities. The College reserves the right not to fill all advertised seats if a sufficient number of meritorious proposals are not received. Conversely, competent academic bodies may recommend admission of additional candidates of exceptional merit, subject to regulatory limits.

Chotanagpur Law College actively promotes innovative and interdisciplinary legal research. Admissions shall strictly follow the reservation policy of the Government of India and UGC regulations as applicable.

Reservation shall apply as per Jharkhand State Government.
